

Имя, фамилия: _____

🗉 Say thank you (and you're welcome) for these things using за + acc. "Спасибо за..."

- | | | |
|--------------------|-------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. помощь за _____ | 5. билет за _____ | 9. письмо за _____ |
| 2. ужин за _____ | 6. приглашение за _____ | 10. совет за _____ |
| 3. обед за _____ | 7. подарок за _____ | 11. еда за _____ |
| 4. ручка за _____ | 8. книга за _____ | 12. пиво за _____ |

🗉 Give the required phrases for each scenario, based on the models in the book. Keep answers VERY short and simple.

1. Practice greeting your boss. Ask how he / she is doing, and wish them a nice weekend.

2. Practice greeting a co-worker. Ask how he / she is doing, and wish them a nice trip and a nice vacation.

3. Wish your tablemates a "good appetite." Then, tell someone (formally) to "be healthy" after sneezing!

4. Write a short formal e-mail (to Иван Иванович); tell him "Happy New Year," and wish him a Merry Christmas.

5. Write a short informal e-mail to your good friend Ваня or Юля. Congratulate them on their birthday and wish them luck.

🗉 Again, give the required phrases for each scenario, based on the models in the book. Keep answers VERY short and simple.

1. Greet and welcome a guest to Moscow. Ask how they're doing, and tell them how you're doing.

2. Say goodbye to a departing guest. Wish them bon voyage and suggest keeping in touch.

3. Practice a telephone conversation: ask how the person is doing and make plans (Давай встретимся... где? когда?).

4. Practice an aborted telephone conversation: you suddenly can't hear. Make arrangements to call back!
