

Имя, фамилия: _____

🔗 Translate using an infinitive (with a dative pronoun, if necessary).

1. Where are we to work? _____
2. What should I talk about? _____
3. What was I to think? _____
4. To ask her, or not to ask? _____
5. What kind of film should we watch? _____
6. Whose article should we read? _____

🔗 Translate using чтобы.

1. In order to live well, one must have money (деньги).

2. In order to have money, one must work.

3. In order to work, one must study (учиться).

🔗 Turn these direct questions into indirect questions. Most of these indirect questions will require a ли, but one won't!

1. "Она говорит по-русски?" Он спрашивал, ... _____.
2. "У них будет телефон?" Она хотела знать, ... _____.
3. "Есть у нас лекция сегодня?" Мы не понимаем, ... _____.
4. "Работает он вообще?" Я не знал, ... _____.
5. "Где зонт?" Как я могу знать, ... _____.
6. "Мы будем смотреть фильм?" Он не сказал, ... _____.
7. "Мы должны прочитать эту статью?" Мы забыли спросить, ... _____.
8. "Надо заплатить за эту газету?" Не знаю, ... _____.

🔗 Translate these sentences involving "if" clauses referring to present conditions. All verbs will be present-tense.

1. If you want a new car, you have to work. _____
2. If he wants to read, he should buy a book. _____
3. It's good if you have an umbrella. _____
4. If you love your mom, you'll pay for her coffee. _____
5. Buy a ticket to the theater, if you want. _____
6. Help me, if you can. _____

🔗 Translate these sentences involving "if" clauses for future conditions. Careful! Use the future tense in both Russian clauses!

1. If you ask me, I'll answer. _____
2. It will be good if we have an umbrella.. _____
3. If we're free, we can go to a ballet tomorrow. _____
4. I'll buy you a ticket if I can. _____