1. Choosing the right verb

Can you choose the Russian infinitive that would best capture these kinds of motion? Rely on our keywords and pictograms, and choose from these infinitives: ходить - идти / пойти; and ездить - ехать / поехать.

- |                                       |       |  |       |
|---------------------------------------|-------|--|-------|
| 1. I was on my way by train to Moscow | _____ | 7. I want to go to Russia next year.       | _____ |
| 2. I'm walking along the street       | _____ | 8. He's not here. He left for the library. | _____ |
| 3. I'm walking around in the park     | _____ | 9. We went to the library yesterday.       | _____ |
| 4. I'm on my way to Petersburg        | _____ | 10. He's going to the library right now.   | _____ |
| 5. I'll go to Russia every year       | _____ | 11. I will go to class every day.          | _____ |
| 6. he used to go to class every day   | _____ | 12. she left for Russian yesterday         | _____ |

2. Focus on "keywords" and (better yet) "pictograms"

What infinitive would best capture the motion described? First, give a keyword: 1) around (or, round trip), 2) underway, 3) setting out, then draw a pictogram that roughly captures the type of motion, and, finally, choose the infinitive.

	keyword:	pictogram:	infinitive:
1. "Where's Bob?" "He left for Russia yesterday."	_____	_____	_____
2. We were walking to class when a dog attacked us.	_____	_____	_____
3. Let's set off for class at 8:00.	_____	_____	_____
4. My neighbors never go to class.	_____	_____	_____
5. I went to Moscow last week, but I'm back now.	_____	_____	_____
6. I want to go to Moscow once per month.	_____	_____	_____
7. Mary has never been to Russia.	_____	_____	_____

3. "Unpacking" (not simply translating!) for understanding

Try translating these sentences by "unpacking" the verbs of motion using our keywords and specifying the type of motion (by foot or by vehicle). For example, he "makes round trips by foot," or she "was underway by vehicle," or they "will set out on foot," etc.

- Моя подруга часто ездит в Россию.
